

Trendlines October 2016 Update

Misgav, Israel – 3 November 2016 – The Trendlines Group Ltd. (“Trendlines”) is pleased to provide this update about its recent activities and developments.

Corporate News

Trendlines received a dividend payment of approximately US$0.9 million from its Most Valuable Portfolio Company that increased the Group’s cash balance, but had no impact on the Group’s earnings. This dividend payment is part of the continuing proceeds from the asset sale agreement for the Most Valuable Portfolio Company in 2014, under which the Most Valuable Portfolio Company is to generate royalties and milestone payments.

Trendlines invested in two new companies:

- Medical company CorAlert Ltd. is developing a noninvasive monitoring device for the diagnosis of heart failure.
- Agtech company MetoMotion Ltd. is developing a multipurpose robotic system to reduce reliance on high-cost human labor in greenhouse vegetable production.

Israel’s Office of the Chief Scientist has granted its formal approval of the Trendlines Medical mandate to include agtech investments.
